Privacy and Refund Policy

This policy discloses the privacy and refund practices for www.newportmentalhealth.org. This policy applies solely to information collected by this web site.

Information Collection, Use, and Sharing:

We are the sole owners of the information collected on this site. We only have access to collect information that you voluntarily give us or via email or other direct contact from you. We will not sell or rent this information to anyone. We will use your information to respond to you regarding the reason you contacted us. We will not share your information with any third party outside of our organization, other than as necessary to fulfill your request. Unless you ask us not to, we may contact you via e-mail in the future to tell you about upcoming events, services, or changes to this privacy policy. You may opt out of any future contacts via email or by phone number given on our website.

Links:

This web site contains links to other sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the content or privacy practices of these sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of any other site that collects personally identifiable information.

Security:

We take precautions to protect your information when you submit it via our website. In addition, whenever we collect sensitive information, only those employees who need the information to perform a specific job function are granted access to your information.

Refunds:

If a donation is made in error to Newport Mental Health, we will honor your request for a refund as long as the request is made within 15 days of your donation.

To request a refund, call (401) 846-1213. Refunds are returned using the original method of payment and can take up to 48 hours to process. If you make a donation by credit card, your refund will be credited to that same credit card.

Updates:

This policy may change from time to time and all updates will be posted on this page.
